ROSEBURG AREA
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Roseburg is the heart of the scenic and recreational paradise known as the Land of Umpqua. This land of authentic outdoor adventures and experiences is bordered by picturesque rivers and lush valleys. The Roseburg area is known for its 359 miles of streams along the north and south forks of the Umpqua River. The year-round natural beauty of the Land of Umpqua contributes to a quality lifestyle enjoyed by residents and appreciated by guests to our area.

The Roseburg area reflects small-town values, has dedicated business leaders and a strong education system from K-12 to our local community college. Our community possesses a hardworking, well-trained workforce. These characteristics have proved instrumental in drawing new residents and companies to the region, while keeping families here for generations.

Stroll through our historic downtown with unique shops and galleries and outstanding restaurants and brewpubs, or venture out into the surrounding wine country. Our more than two dozen boutique wineries are receiving international acclaim for a diverse array of wines including Tempranillo, Pinot Gris, Baco Noir, Pinot Noir, Riesling and exotic blends to name a few.

At Wildlife Safari you can get up close and personal with wild animals roaming free. If you'd rather wrestle a steelhead than a bear (and who says you can't do both?), tackle the famous North Umpqua River. It holds steelhead, trout, salmon, bass and as much adventure as you could hope for in one river. And, let's not forget the opportunity for world-class gaming at Seven Feathers Casino Resort & Spa.

Roseburg is only a little more than an hour from where the Pacific Ocean rushes to the beaches of the beautiful Oregon Coast. Or travel the scenic North Umpqua Highway to Crater Lake National Park, one of the most breathtaking sights in America. You can stop at dozens of waterfalls along the way.

If you're a hiker or mountain biker, travel the same route and test the North Umpqua Trail system, one of the top 30 rides in the world. Our outdoor opportunities—from fishing, rafting, hiking, biking to cycling—when combined with our unique visitor attractions, wineries and breweries, make the Land of Umpqua a perfect destination for visitors.

As this region's leading advocate for business, the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce works with our business and community partners to create a strong local economy, promote our local businesses, promote the Land of Umpqua as a premier visitor destination and represent business interests through political activity.

The chamber's political advocacy is founded in making certain our community maintains the most business-friendly environment possible for private-sector growth and job creation. Work is always ongoing to provide shovel-ready sites for business development—manufacturing, industrial and commercial—ensuring infrastructure is in place for future growth. The chamber plays an important role in attracting new business and expanding existing business in the Land of Umpqua for family-wage job creation. The chamber continues to advocate for investment in waterfront enhancement, revitalization of historic downtown Roseburg and transportation infrastructure. Much is progressing in these areas today.

All this, and more, is happening in Roseburg. It's all here for you in the Land of Umpqua. Whether you are visiting us for the first time or hundredth, recently relocated or considering Roseburg as the perfect location for your business or retirement, or are a sixth generation resident like me, the Land of Umpqua is truly the best place to live, work and play.

All are welcome here.

IN THE LAND OF UMPQUA

When it comes to the long list of reasons people are wild about Roseburg and Douglas County, at the top of that list is a combination of the natural, unsurpassed beauty and the unlimited outdoor experiences existing in our little corner of the world.

The Land of Umpqua is truly the land of authentic adventure! From an exciting whitewater river ride to a fabulous salmon fishing expedition on the Pacific Ocean, almost anything you can dream to do outdoors is accessible in the Roseburg area. This region, the Land of Umpqua, is best known for the bounty and power of its rivers, where steelhead, other wildlife and waterfalls abound.

Pristine rivers run from the high Cascade Mountains through fertile valleys and from the Coast Range to the Pacific Ocean. These rivers, the legendary North Umpqua Trail System and lush park systems have so much to offer. Hikers, bikers, cyclists, bird watchers, fishing enthusiasts—novice or expert, rafters, golfers, skiers, skaters, boaters, ball players, campers and anyone else hungry for outdoor fun find their paradise here in the Land of Umpqua.

WATERFALLS

The Land of Umpqua is home to numerous spectacular waterfalls. The North Umpqua and High Cascades segments of the Rogue-Umpqua National Scenic Byway are discovered by traveling east from Roseburg on Highway 138. The road meanders alongside the legendary waters of the North Umpqua River, deep into forests of old growth Douglas Fir. Along the way are the sights and sounds of thundering waterfalls—24 in all including Clearwater, Deadline, Fall Creek, Susan Creek, Toketee and Watson Falls—many just a short walk from your car.

Watson Falls is the highest waterfall in southwest Oregon, plunging 272 feet over the edge of a basalt lava flow. A 0.4-mile trail rated “moderate” leads up to the base of the falls, with an excellent close-up view offered from a wooden bridge that crosses the creek 0.3 miles from the trailhead.

Toketee Falls (right) is a two-tiered falls. The upper falls drops 40 feet and the lower falls plunges 80 feet over a sheer wall of basalt. A 0.4-mile trail rated “moderate” winds through an old-growth forest and ends at a sturdy platform overlooking the falls. In the Chinook language, “Toketee” means “pretty” or “graceful,” and Toketee Falls definitely lives up to its name.

Whether you have an afternoon to spend or just need a break to stretch your legs while traveling the North Umpqua Highway, these must-see waterfalls are easy to access and worth the time.

IN THE LAND OF UMPQUA

As a fly fishing stream the North Umpqua is known as the “graduate school of fly fishing”—a testament to the difficulty of fishing and wading this storied river.

FISHING

The Land of Umpqua offers the finest bait and fly fishing in Oregon, from ocean fishing at Winchester Bay to lake and river angling. The majestic North Umpqua River “lures” locals and visitors to it year after year. No matter the season or the water sport, the offering of the North Umpqua River is incomparable.

Long recognized as a premier destination for fly fishing for wild steelhead, the North Umpqua River is also known for its 33-mile section of “fly angling only water.” There has long been the misconception these regulations were set in place for fly fisherman to pursue their sport; when, in fact, the regulations were originally established to protect the runs of salmon which spawn in the river.

As a fly fishing stream the North Umpqua is known as the “graduate school of fly fishing”—a testament to the difficulty of fishing and wading this storied river.

A number of guide services hold permits for the wild and scenic portion of the river.

Other activities and experiences include boating, water skiing, swimming, brilliant waterfalls and natural hot springs.

Reservoirs, lakes and rivers throughout the Land of Umpqua offer a variety of boating opportunities. The Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center has a guide which includes information on boat access points along the North, South and main Umpqua Rivers.

The North Umpqua Trail is referred to as “The NUT” by local mountain biking enthusiasts. In part because this 66-mile trail system is like a bag of mixed nuts. It offers something to fulfill every kind of mountain biker’s experience. # COVERED BRIDGES

Covered bridges have been part of Oregon's history for more than 150 years.

Simple and practical, the bridges were often frequently made from locally-grown wood. Strong and straight Douglas Fir beams were hewn for the trusses and hardwoods utilized for the fastenings.

In the 1930s, Oregon was home to over 300 covered bridges. Today, 53 still stand, the largest concentration in the western US. The Land of Umpqua is home to several of these surviving historic bridges including Cavitt Creek, Horse Creek, Milo Academy, Neal Lane, Pass Creek, Rochester (pictured) and Mott bridges. For a separate covered bridge tour map and brochure, stop by the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center.

COVERED BRIDGES

1. CAVITT CREEK BRIDGE

Was built in 1942 and spans 70 feet, crossing Little River at its junction with Cavitt Creek. Raw logs make up the upper supports. The bridge's odd portal shape was designed to accommodate log trucks.

2. HORSE CREEK BRIDGE

Built in 1930 in Lane County, it spanned the McKenzie River. This 110-foot bridge was closed in 1968 but found new life in 1990 when it was disassembled and moved to its current site in Myrtle Creek's Millsite Park, where it is used as a footbridge.

3. MILO ACADEMY BRIDGE

Built in 1962 and spans 100 feet to cross the South Umpqua River. The bridge is actually made of steel with a housing of wood. The structure was constructed to replace an original covered wooden bridge from 1920. The bridge provides access to the Milo Academy boarding school.

4. NEAL LANE BRIDGE

This is one of the shortest covered bridges in Oregon at 42 feet. Built in 1939 for $1000, the bridge is the only one in the state that uses a kingpost truss design. Arched portals, narrow windows and plank flooring add to its rustic charm.

6. ROCHESTER BRIDGE

Built in 1933 to replace a span built in the 1860s. This elegant 80-foot long bridge has unique side windows with gently-curved tops. Just west of Sutherlin, this bridge spans the Calapooia River.

5. PASS CREEK BRIDGE

Built in 1925, Pass Creek Bridge replaced a previous covered bridge built in 1906 and was in service until 1981. In 1989, the 61-foot bridge was moved a short distance downstream and rebuilt as a footbridge.

7. MOTT BRIDGE

While it's not a covered bridge, it has historical significance. Built in 1935-36 by the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC), the 237-foot three spandrel arch bridge is the sole survivor of three bridges built with this design in the Pacific Northwest, and is an Oregon Engineering Historic Landmark.

WILD ENCOUNTERS

An afternoon at Wildlife Safari is a "must stop" for residents and visitors in the Land of Umpqua.

Each day as the sun rises over the Land of Umpqua, roaring lions, bellowing rhinos and the social “chattering” of primates are just some of the sights and sounds waiting for those willing to take a walk on the wild side. Wildlife Safari is the Pacific Northwest’s premier animal park filled with animals from Africa, Asia, North and South Americas. For nearly forty-five years residents and visitors alike have had the privilege of experiencing the world’s wildlife in a natural habitat environment.

Wildlife Safari is a 600-acre drive-through park just eight miles south of Roseburg in Winston, Oregon that attracts people from around the globe. Approximately 200,000 people visit the park each year to experience the nearly 600 animals from over 75 different species. Visitors to Wildlife Safari can view these animals from their vehicle as they freely roam the park’s wide open spaces including a “splash pond” for resident elephants George, Tava, Moja and Valerie. The 14,000-gallon watering hole is about 50’ x 55’ and plunges to 6½ feet at its deep end. A waterfall in the middle of the pool drops a wide tide of water into the pool as a fountain, carved like an elephant’s trunk spouts water into the air.

Visitors to the park can get up close and personal at the Safari Village’s petting zoo or by taking advantage of one of Wildlife Safari’s special experiences including lion or giraffe feedings, cheetah walk and elephant rides or encounters. The Safari Village also offers train rides through the park, education programs, special year-round events and exhibits and the White Rhino Restaurant.

Known around the world for its cheetah breeding program, Wildlife Safari continues to grow its Wildlife Encounters program. With an encounter, you can choose to feed a giraffe, help bathe an elephant, be a companion ranger and be just feet away from lions, bears or cheetahs at feeding time! Be sure and call the safari in advance of your visit to learn more about and schedule a special wildlife encounter for an experience of a lifetime.

Wildlife Safari is AZA (Association of Zoos and Aquariums) accredited for meeting the highest zoological professional management standards. The mission and purpose of the organization exemplifies its ongoing dedication to education, conservation and research.

PARKS & RESORTS

DIAMOND LAKE RESORT

Nestled in the southern Cascade Mountains with an incredible view of Mt. Thielsen as its backdrop, Diamond Lake is an outdoor enthusiast's paradise. Located just five miles north of the Crater Lake National Park access from Roseburg by the picturesque North Umpqua segment of the Rogue-Umpqua National Scenic Byway. While it certainly offers everything one would expect from a lake with a surface covering more than 3,000 acres, the area offers so much more than water-related activities.

Summer recreational activities including Rainbow Trout fishing, boating (charters for fishing, patio boats, paddle boats, bumper boats, kayaks and canoes are all available to rent) and water sports. Non-water activities include cycling on paved trails, mountain biking on single track dirt trails, horseback riding, hiking, camping with volleyball, horseshoeing and more.

Diamond Lake Resort, Oregon's Gem of the Cascades, offers a motel, cabins and the RV park offers full hook up spaces from May to October (snow permitting). The resort also boasts a café, South Shore Pizza (seasonal—summer) and the Mount Bailey Grill & Sports Lounge.

The US Forest Service manages three campgrounds with over 450 camping sites in the Diamond Lake area, with both reserved and first-come, first-served camp sites, including restrooms, showers, drinking water and RV dump site.

LOON LAKE LODGE

Between Roseburg and the coast you'll find tranquil Loon Lake, a favorite family getaway with plenty of activities. Guarded from the coastal winds and fog by the scenic mountains of the Coastal Range, Loon Lake offers a more temperate climate than the coast and inland valleys. The calm surface of the lake from the mountain barriers makes for some of the smoothest water skiing in southern Oregon. In addition to water skiing, activities include swimming, fishing, kayaking, canoeing, and paddle boarding, just to name a few. Visitors will find a selection of equipment rentals are available, from pontoon boats and ski boats to paddle boards and canoes, to enhance their lake experience.

The lodge area of the lake offers a full-service deli with deck overlooking the lake, an ice cream stand, gas station, general store and a gift shop. Sandy swimming beach, snack shack, and boat docks can be found in the marina area. Loon Lake also has a sandy beach and volleyball court and summer activities planned by resort staff.

A variety of lodging options are available at Loon Lake including vacation rentals, cabins, cottages, and even yurts. For those looking for a more outdoorsy overnight option, the lake also offers RV sites and tent camping. For reservations call (541) 599-2244

EXPLORE

An amazing place where the water is a color of blue you have to see to believe.

For visitors during the summer months the bright sunny days at the crater rim make for the best pictures of the lake capturing an array of brilliant blue and turquoise water. Summertime activities include hiking, boat tours, trolley tours, ranger-guided programs and a number of other activities available at Crater Lake National Park.

CRATER LAKE NATIONAL PARK

The Land of Umpqua doesn't just span the length of the county's I-5 corridor. It also stretches from the high Cascade Mountain Range to the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Roseburg has the distinction of being in between these beautiful and unique locals.

Roseburg is the northern-most I-5 portal to majestic Crater Lake National Park and the most scenic way to get there when you visit Roseburg. The seemingly short journey of little more than 100 miles from Roseburg via the breathtaking North Umpqua segment of the Rogue-Umpqua Scenic Byway offers an unforgettable route to Crater Lake. The road follows 40 miles of the wild and scenic North Umpqua River, world-renowned for its distinctive blue color and its steelhead fishing. At the end of your journey you'll find yourself at the northern rim of one of the world's wonders. Oregon's only National Park.

Nowhere else on earth can you witness a lake so deep and pure, creating an intense blue color that never ceases to amaze.

ABOUT CRATER LAKE:

Crater Lake was formed when Mt. Mazama erupted over 7,700 years ago and is the deepest in the United States. The lake is surrounded by sheer cliffs almost 2,000 feet high and has two islands. The 33 miles around the caldera provides 20 scenic overlooks.

The Steel Visitor Center is open every day except December 25. Open 9:00 am to 5:00 pm from mid-April to early November and 10:00 am to 4:00 pm the rest of the year. The Rim Visitor Center at Rim Village is open daily 9:30 am to 5:00 pm from late May to late September. (541) 594-3000

FROM EVERYDAY ENTHUSIASTS TO CONNOISSEURS—WINE LOVERS KNOW LAND OF UMPQUA WINES DELIVER VARIETY AND EXCELLENCE

Once considered to be the wine industry's best kept secret, wines from the Umpqua Valley region have not just grown in popularity and exposure, but in international acclaim for diversity and excellence.

Unlike most of Oregon's wine regions known solely for their Pinot Noir, the Land of Umpqua's range of growing conditions, soil types and micro-climates has expanded the list of varietals grown by Umpqua Valley wineries beyond most every region in the United States. While producing exceptional Pinot Noir, the region's growing list of vintners produce an array of award-winning wines, including: Baco Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Marechal Foch, Tempranillo, Sauvignon Blanc, Grüner Veltliner, Merlot, Malbec, Syrah and Riesling, and so much more.

With the Umpqua River and its tributaries coursing through our beautiful valleys, the region's unrivaled natural beauty and warm hospitality of local winemakers provides an idyllic destination for visitors. We hope you'll take time to visit one—or better yet, all—of these great local wineries. Not only do they offer the very best wine the Land of Umpqua has to offer, but are invaluable partners with the chamber in promoting the Roseburg area as a destination for wine enthusiasts.

Whether you're in the mood to visit a historic winery or a chic, urban winery, there is a style and flavor for every palate.

The Umpqua Valley wine industry has grown to more than 30 wineries—all within 30 miles of Interstate 5. Using Roseburg as your home base, visiting all of our area wineries is quite doable utilizing our three winery tour routes—the north, central and south (see “Itineraries” on pages 24-25). # BREWERIES

IN THE LAND OF UMPQUA

Brew pubs are not necessarily new to Roseburg. What's new is our growing brewery scene over the past several years. Wine may be the star of the Umpqua Valley, but craft beer is making a strong comeback since its first start in the 1800's when hops became a major crop in the area before Prohibition was enacted. Also growing are the number of special events related to craft brews. And, let's not forget to mention the quality of our local brews.

Locals and visitors alike are drawn to the blend of good food, unique atmosphere and the wide array of locally crafted beers and ales brewpubs throughout the Land of Umpqua have to offer. Here are a couple of our chamber member breweries to help wet your whistle.

BREWING HISTORY:

The first brewery in Roseburg was established back in 1864 by John Rast and Gottlieb Mehl and fittingly named Roseburg Brewery. By 1890 the brewery produced fifteen barrels of "Roseburger" brand beer per day.

And Now A Different Flavor

If you're in the mood to give your palette a taste of something a little different, than stop by Oran Mor Artisan Mead.

Mead, perhaps the oldest indulgent beverage, has ancient roots that suggest it may out-age both wine and beer. While mead isn't beer, it's not quite wine—at least not in the sense we are used to. Mead is made by fermenting honey instead of fruit.

Oran Mor creates flavorful mead using locally grown fruits and honey whenever possible. Combined with herbs and spices, their artful treat captures the unique flavors of the area and showcase the richness of the Umpqua Valley.

While you're in the neighborhood...

Kruse Farms offers fresh locally grown in season fruits and vegetables, as well as pies and pastries baked fresh every day. They also have an assortment of treats perfect for munching on while you explore the Land of Umpqua.

ARTS & CULTURE

Museums

Douglas County Museum

Engaging exhibits depict 8,000 years of Native American culture, pioneer history and natural history unique to the Land of Umpqua. Experience railroading history by touring through a restored 1882 Oregon and California Railroad Depot. The museum is home to one of the largest historical photographic collections in the state. A children's discovery room and outdoor archeological "Dig Into History" site gives youth the opportunity for hands-on learning.

Oakland Museum

Just 13 miles north of Roseburg and two miles east of I-5, the town of Oakland is a walk back in time. The first Oregon Historic District recognized by the National Register of Historic Places, Oakland includes over 130 historic properties. The Oakland Museum displays artifacts from the area's past, along with a replica of an early post office and general store. Open 1:00 to 4:00 pm daily; closed holidays.

Pioneer-Indian Museum

Located in Canyonville, south of Roseburg, the Pioneer-Indian Museum displays trace the history of the South Umpqua Valley from the days of Indians through the arrival of the pioneers. A large mural depicts Indian pictographs drawn several hundred years ago by the Umpqua Tribe. Open 1:00 to 5:00 pm Wednesday – Sunday (or by appointment).

ART & HISTORY COLLIDE

It's pretty well known that art and history are plentiful throughout the Land of Umpqua and when it comes to unique stories of how the two collide, the Umpqua Valley Arts Center is one not to miss.

Built more than 100 years ago, the Umpqua Valley Arts Center was originally a soldier's hospital. The Old Soldiers' Home Hospital is listed on the National Register of Historic Places for its architectural significance as well as its unique significance of the development of Oregon's health care system for veterans. The building received a lease on life when adopted by the Umpqua Valley Arts Association in the 1970's.

The Umpqua Valley Arts Association showcases the work of talented area artists, offers adult art classes and youth programs to encourage locals to explore their artistic talents.

For more information about the arts center or to enquire about current events, go to www.uvarts.com or call (541) 672-2532

FIVE DAYS IN THE LAND OF UMPQUA

Here is a sample itinerary of all the great things to do during your vacation in the Land of Umpqua.

DAY 1

SOUTH & CENTRAL VALLEY WINERY TOUR, WILDLIFE SAFARI AND MUSEUM

Spend your morning at the Wildlife Safari in Winston, a 600-acre drive-through park where you will have close encounters with hundreds of animals from all over the world. Be sure and spend some time in the Safari Village for special exhibits and shows and have lunch at the White Rhino.

To begin your experience with the wonderful wines from the Land of Umpqua, visit nearby Girardet Winery & Vineyard. On your way back to Roseburg, visit the award-winning Douglas County Museum. Spend your late afternoon visiting a few more wineries including Cooper Ridge Vineyards and Delfino Vineyards.

While in the central valley area, you may want to drive to the Rochester Covered Bridge off Highway 138.

WILD AND SCENIC NORTH UMPQUA

Begin your day early and travel the North Umpqua segment of the Rogue-Umpqua Scenic Byway, Highway 138, towards Glide. This route is considered one of the best roads in the nation for scenic beauty, recreational opportunities, and is a destination unto itself.

Your first stop should be the Colliding Rivers viewpoint where the swift deep waters of the North Umpqua River meet the rapids of sparkling Little River head-on. Continue east on Highway 138 taking the opportunity to stop at a few of the parks and pull-offs to view the magnificent North Umpqua River. You should also stop along the way and hike into several of the Land of Umpqua's waterfalls. Fall Creek, Clearwater and Watson Falls are short hikes.

For a longer adventure hike to the two-tiered Toketee Falls. The perfect place to stop for lunch is the historic Steamboat Inn. After lunch it's on to Diamond Lake with Mt Thielsen—the lightning rod of the Cascades—as its backdrop. And, of course, your final destination before heading back to Roseburg is to take in the beauty of world-famous Crater Lake, the deepest lake in North America.

HISTORIC CITIES AND NORTH VALLEY WINERY TOUR

Start your day at the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center with information on all things there are to see and do in Roseburg and the Land of Umpqua, including “The Blast” tour. The digital tour begins at the chamber and is the perfect way to get your visit of historic downtown Roseburg started. After completing the tour, be sure to check out the assortment of shops, art galleries, antique stores and restaurants. Take time to view statues, murals and historic monuments in downtown Roseburg and stop into Paul O’Brien Winery, Roseburg’s first urban winery.

You’ll want to visit the galleries and gift shop at the Umpqua Valley Arts Center, located in the original 1917 Veterans Administration building on Harvard Avenue. Next, step back in time with a visit to historic Oakland, just 12 miles north of Roseburg on I-5. But, not before visiting a couple of the Land of Umpqua’s north valley wineries like Misty Oaks Vineyard and Reustle Prayer Rock Vineyards.

Historic Oakland was established in 1881. Explore turn of the century brick buildings, a museum, a restaurant with old-fashioned ice cream parlor and antique stores before heading back to Roseburg for dinner. If your evening is free, it’s the perfect time to head south to Seven Feathers Casino for some fun Nevada-style gaming.

SCENIC DRIVE AND THE OREGON COAST

Travel west from Sutherlin on Highway 138, a designated state scenic byway. Take a break in the town of Elkton for a bite to eat and visit wineries. Before getting back on the road again, you’ll want to take in the Butterfly Pavilion, where you’ll walk through butterfly and hummingbird gardens in this 4½-acre botanical garden featuring native trees and shrubs. Your next stop before heading for the Oregon Coast should be Fort Umpqua. Continue west on Highway 138, following the Umpqua River to the Pacific Ocean. Just before Reedsport, stop at the Dean Creek Elk viewing area. Upon entering Reedsport, be sure and stop at the Discovery Center to learn more about the local and natural history of the area.

Next up, are visits to one of the many public beach areas where the Pacific Ocean rushes to meet the Oregon shore, the Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area and the Umpqua River Lighthouse and Museum in Winchester Bay. No visit to the Oregon Coast is complete without enjoying a meal of fresh seafood at one of the area’s local restaurants.

Depending on your time, you can return to Roseburg the way you came or for more scenic beauty, take the longer “loop” and head south on Highway 101 and return to Roseburg by way of highway 42. If you choose this route, you can make a short side trip and check out the rocky headlands of Cape Arago and the beautiful formal gardens at Shore Acres near Coos Bay.

EVERYTHING ELSE AND EVERYTHING YOU MISSED

The ambitious itineraries of your first four days in the Land of Umpqua have, no doubt, left you with sights and experiences you either missed or would have liked to have spent more time. And so, day 5 will give you the opportunity to spend more time at a museum, gaming or visiting more of our waterfalls and covered bridges. You can visit that winery you missed on a previous day or visit a few local breweries. Maybe it’s the day you pamper yourself at the River Rock Spa in Canyonville or one of our full-amenities spas in Roseburg.

Maybe it’s the day you tackle one of our many authentic outdoor experiences—fishing, hiking, rafting, biking, cycling, golfing . . . you name it. Or, maybe, with all there is to do in the Land of Umpqua, you’ll have to save some of these activities for your next visit. You’ll always be welcome in the Land of Umpqua.

The following major industries continue to play a vital role in the economic health of our region.

TOURISM

Area attractions continue to draw more visitors each year

Roseburg became a major lumber producer during the post-World War II housing boom. Today, Douglas County is a major, international producer of wood products. The county boasts 2.8 million acres of forest lands; 41 percent of these lands are privately owned. While Roseburg's economy continues to diversify, the timber industry remains a key component of the community's overall well-being. Twelve percent of the county's workforce is employed in the forestry, logging and wood product manufacturing industries, accounting for 22 percent of the county's total payroll.

FARMING & RANCHING

Agricultural industries thrive in Douglas County

The agricultural industry thrives in Roseburg's versatile climate, contributing about $103 million to the local economy. Major crops include: berries, nuts, apples, melons and, of course, grapes. Douglas County also is a producer of sheep, cattle and a variety of other livestock.

HEALTHCARE

Top rated quality with steady growth

One of our fastest-growing industries is health care. Not just important for the jobs it adds to the local economy but, for the role it plays in supporting existing and attracting new business. For more information on healthcare, see page 49.

In recent years Douglas County has attracted a number of companies engaged in manufacturing, a growing job providing sector. These businesses may well have located to other parts of the country, but chose to bring these family-wage jobs to Roseburg and Douglas County. The selection of our community is due to a number of noteworthy characteristics, including varied transportation infrastructure, availability of a qualified workforce, suitable industrial sites and, most importantly, the lifestyle Land of Umpqua residents enjoy.

HISTORY OF ROSEBURG

A rich history led to the development of Roseburg as the Douglas County seat and the center for recreation, shopping and culture in the region. From the Native Americans who first inhabited the lands to the growth of the region during the gold rush to the many who are drawn to the area today, the Land of Umpqua continues to prove its worth.

Long before European settlers arrived, the Cow Creek band of the Umpqua Tribe of Indians inhabited the region. Hunting for elk and deer, and fishing for salmon and steelhead was vital to their sustenance. They also gathered abundantly available berries, nuts and vegetables. Goods were traded with other tribes, east as far as Crater Lake and as far north as the Columbia River.

What long was part of the traditional hunting and fishing grounds for the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians began to change in 1846 when settlers began to flood into the region via the newly established Applegate Trail. Jesse Applegate and Levi Scott blazed this southern route of the Oregon Trail as a safer route than floating down the Columbia River. The trail went through the heart of downtown Roseburg and its main street follows the same route today. A historical marker on the west side of the Douglas County Courthouse memorializes this wagon trail, also called the Old South Road.

The arrival of New Yorker Aaron Rose and his family in 1851 coincided with the establishment of Umpqua County. The discovery of gold in 1852, rapid growth of the region and mining led to tension between the native people and the new inhabitants. A wild downtown and tragic warring between European settlers and native peoples followed for the next decade.

Due to increased population, Umpqua County divided and the portion east of the Coast Range became known as Douglas County—named for US Senator Stephen A. Douglas of Illinois who was a congressional advocate for Oregon statehood. When the mining boom faded in 1962, Umpqua County was absorbed into Douglas County. Douglas County has a total of 5,134 square miles and is larger than some states.

Upon settling in the Land of Umpqua, Aaron Rose's house served as a tavern and the first roadside inn in the area. He platted the area Deer Creek and its first post office was established in 1852. Two years later, voters chose Deer Creek over nearby Winchester as the Douglas County seat and Rose donated three acres of land and $1000 for a courthouse. A year later, Deer Creek was renamed for Aaron Rose and became Roseburgh; in 1894 changing the spelling to Roseburg.

Progress came in 1872, the year the town was incorporated, when the Oregon & California Railroad arrived. New faces and goods fostered fast growth and the establishment of Roseburg as a hub.

Agriculture and trade flourished, and fine homes and city services soon emerged. Trains not only brought new people to the area but also created an opportunity for the development of the local timber industry. With 1.8 million acres of commercial forest and one of the oldest stands of old growth timber in the world, Douglas County is the leader in timber production.

Returning WWII soldiers ushered in Roseburg's modern era with a housing and timber boom in 1945.

Construction of Interstate 5 through the city in 1966 provided a boost as well. Roseburg enjoyed prosperity until a national housing slump in the early 1980s. Federal listing of the northern spotted owl as an endangered species in 1990 hurt the timber industry and resulted in job losses.

Today, the timber and wood products industry remains a strong staple in Roseburg's economic fabric. A diverse economy that embraces timber, agriculture, manufacturing, hospitality, medical and telecom industries.

Revitalization and business expansion continues today. The redevelopment of historic downtown and the waterfront is ongoing. The chamber is advancing a growing tourism sector, attracting new business and industries and planning ahead for a bright future.

A BLAST OF HISTORY

In the early morning hours of August 7, 1959, a fire at a Roseburg building supply facility ignited a parked truck filled with dynamite and ammonium nitrate. The rest is history—in the Roseburg area at least.

The Blast of 1959 changed the landscape of Roseburg's charming downtown district. Fourteen people died in the massive explosion, and many others were injured. It leveled 12 city blocks and damaged 300 businesses within a 30-block radius of its epicenter, marked by a crater 52 feet wide and 12 feet deep, causing an estimated $12 million in damage. Today a plaque marks this spot, which is less than two blocks away from the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center.

The Roseburg Blast is the third most deadly disaster in Oregon history. Yet the devastating event remains a little-known chapter in Oregon history. Residents and visitors alike can now experience the fury of the Roseburg Blast from sites where it originated and caused the most significant destruction.

The Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center offers both a walking tour map and a free self-guided video tour app—Roseburg Blast Tour App—for smart phones and mobile devices. The educational tour includes footage, photographs and eyewitness interviews. The tour begins and ends at the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce.
