Timber Industry Update Featured at Luncheon

The Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce's May membership luncheon program will provide an update on the timber and wood products industry presented by Toby Luther, CEO of Lone Rock Resources. Luther has served as the chairman of the Oregon Forest & Industries Council and has served on the executive committee for the National Alliance of Forest Owners, bringing experience and wisdom to this industry update.

Discussion and details on federal timber legislation as well as current policy issues affecting the industry will be provided. Information on current market trends and technological changes will also be shared. The program

Are You a Future Business Leader?

Chamber Now Accepting Project Leadership Applications

The Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce is now accepting applications for 2019-20 Project Leadership Roseburg. The chamber is pleased to have graduated over 600 business and community leaders from this distinguished professional development program. If you, or an employee of your business or organization, are a future leader of our community, then Project Leadership Roseburg is the program for you! Project Leadership will begin its 31st year in September.

Project Leadership Roseburg is more than your typical leadership program. It provides participants with a comprehensive awareness of Douglas County that includes a deeper understanding of how our community works. Participants learn this directly from our business, government and community leaders. The nine-month program shares knowledge about Douglas County that fosters dedication to our community as participants learn about how they can get involved in our community to help create a more vibrant future. The class, as a whole, will select, raise funds and complete a small community-benefit project during the course of the nine months.

Project Leadership Roseburg is a two-year commitment for participants. During the first year, they attend a day-long session each month from September 2019 through May 2020. The full-day workshops range from panel presentations to tours on a variety of subjects and include leadership and teambuilding activities. The various workshop subjects include details about economic drivers such as natural resources, manufacturing, health care and education, to name a few. The first workshop is Thursday, September 12.

2019 Legislature is Challenging Times for Business

Message from the President & CEO

the Spotted Owl listing, during the Great Recession and other unique times. But this is something different. Not unexpected. Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce leadership has been talking about it the past couple of years and a lot, I mean A LOT, since last fall.

When the Roseburg Area Chamber developed its legislative and public affairs agenda for 2019, we already knew business in Oregon was going to face a mountain of unwanted legislation. We knew last October that we'd need to oppose legislation on cap and trade, protected employee status additions, elimination of small business tax cuts, proposed corporate tax on gross sales and paid family leave. Of the nearly 5000 bills introduced during Oregon's long sessions, the chamber typically monitors 150 to 200 pieces of legislation and weighs in on 30 to 40 bills, depending on the year.

It's not just the acidity of national politics, the blame games, claims of bias reporting and intolerance just about everywhere. It's not just perceived and real threats to civil liberties and held-in-our-hearts beliefs. It's not just the urban-rural divide that continues to grow and separate us more every day. It's not just changing, evolving dynamics in communities throughout our state. It's not just a world where "majority" or "super majority" exists. It's so much more.

When to that environment you add a little "winner takes all," "taking my toys and going home" or "when I want your opinion I'll give it to you" attitudes, peppered with less than cordial diatribes or full-on exclusion from the discussion while existing in a world where anyone can say and do anything anonymously, without accountability, via social media, it's no wonder what's occurring is debilitating to rural Oregon.

When businesses that simply want to protect their interests in order to grow and provide future economic stability for their business, employees and community, protests a gross sales tax, they are said to be anti-education, schools and teachers. I don't know a single business owner in our community that feels that way! Just look at how many of them write checks in support of our local schools and student activities.

When businesses plead their case, supported by federal law, to have a drug-free workplace to protect their business and their employees or they argue against weeks—months—of mandatory paid leave, they are called anti-employee. Every business leader I know recognizes their organization's success is due in large part to their employees. Protecting employees and keeping business in the black in order to keep employees in jobs, is a top priority.

So, what does all this have to do with the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce? First, it's been a long—and only half over—frustrating session for business so far during Oregon's Legislative Session. And there are so many bad bills on the horizon, a little venting is good for the psyche. Advocating is at the heart of what we do in support of Douglas County businesses every day.

Sadly, our rural businesses, employers of our citizens, are in the crosshairs. When you cross the legislation we face with the fact that the majority of those making the decisions live far from where we are...and not just our physical location, the odds are not in our favor. Legislation and laws that might easily be implemented or absorbed in urban areas such as Portland, Eugene and Salem, are not so easily digested in Oregon's many rural communities. And while the initial adverse impacts are on business, it is inevitable that that the greatest burden will be borne by citizens through taxes, increased costs of products and services and job loss.

How many more taxes can Oregonians take, especially those in more economically-challenged rural Oregon? What is currently proposed in Salem is $5.67 Billion (yep, Billion will also include a federal legislator update from Matt Hill, executive director of Douglas Timber Operators. Hill was previously a senior legislative assistant who advised on natural resources and tribal policy matters and in 2011 he formed a federal government affairs consulting business.

The chamber's two-part luncheon will also acknowledge the 2018-2019 Project Leadership graduates, so please get your reservation in early to ensure your seat. The chamber's May 20 membership luncheon, sponsored by Douglas Timber Operators, is from 11:30 am to 1:00 p.m. in the community conference hall at the Douglas County Fairgrounds.

Cost for members is $20 per person and $150 for a table of eight. For non-member businesses and the general public, the cost is $30 per person. Tickets may be purchased online here or by returning with the flyer on page 4. Please note reservations are required and tickets will not be sold at the door. The reservation deadline is Thursday, May 16 by noon.

with a "B") over two years in new taxes and revenue. This includes a new consumption tax equaling $2 billion; family leave tax of $1.5 billion, carbon assessments equaling $1.1 billion, employer assessment tax of $500 million, Medicaid tax of $334.5 million, small business tax of $130 million and Kicker cut of $108 million. This does not even include the proposed $500 million raid of our SAIF (workers compensation) fund. Oregonians should be outraged; the Roseburg Area Chamber certainly is.

This is just a short list of the kind of legislation that the Roseburg Area Chamber has joined with other chambers and business organizations around the state to try and stop. Or at the very least make more palatable for rural Oregon. The chamber submits testimony almost weekly in opposition of some bill or other in Salem. Yet, too often the pleas from rural Oregon seem to fall on deaf ears in the current "we hold all the cards" world. Never mind, the chamber will continue to meet and chat with our legislators, take positions, submit testimony and issue "Action Alerts" to our members to ensure the voice of Douglas County business is heard. No matter the environment, to not do so would be irresponsible.

Luncheons "Go Dark" for Summer

A quick reminder to all our members, that the chamber's membership meeting luncheons "go dark" for the summer months, June through August. We'll be back with great informative programs of interest to our members beginning on Monday, September 16.

In the meantime, if you need any assistance or information, please call us at the chamber. Get the most out of your summer by being a tourist in our own backyard. For complete information about everything there is to do and see in Roseburg and through the beautiful Land of Umpqua, please stop by the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center.

Green Elementary Project Near Complete

Project Leadership participants of 2018-19 are well under way with this year's project to upgrade and improve the playground at Green Elementary School.

To date, the class has removed the pea gravel and replaced it with wood chips, re-painted current activity areas as well as added additional activities not previously included.

The class has also arranged for a garden shed, garden tools and other equipment to also be included. Depending on the budget, they may also be able to purchase some extra fun playground equipment such as new basketball nets and other tools to promote physical activity. The class is set to complete the project and graduate on May 20, at the chamber's May Membership meeting.

Project Leadership Roseburg

2019-2020

CALLING ALL FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS

Are you or one of your employees a future Douglas County business leader?

Then now is the time to apply for participation in the 2019-2020 Project Leadership Roseburg program.

Since 1989, more than 560 business men and women have graduated from Project Leadership Roseburg, and many of today's respected Douglas County business and civic leaders are graduates of this esteemed program. Now in its 31st year, the mission of the Roseburg Area Chamber of Commerce's leadership program is to educate, inspire, and strengthen community-minded individuals through increased business and community awareness and to promote civic activism through volunteerism.

Not your typical leadership program, Project Leadership provides participants with a comprehensive awareness of the many facets of Douglas County and they gain a deeper understanding of how our community works, directly from its leaders. The nine-month program not only imparts knowledge about our region, but fosters dedication to our community as participants learn about opportunities for involvement to help create a more vibrant future for Douglas County.

Making a Commitment to Leadership

Project Leadership Roseburg requires a two-year commitment from participants. During the first year, participants attend nine day-long sessions each month—from September through May. Each month, participants will attend a full-day workshop, panel presentations/briefings, and/or tours on different session topics. During the first year, participants will also select, organize, raise funds and implement a community-benefit project.

Project Leadership challenges its participants to become more involved in local politics, the chamber, community and civic organizations—all for the future betterment of Douglas County. This involvement will start soon after participants "graduate" from the leadership program in May. They will assist chamber staff with facilitation of workshop sessions for a new class of Project Leadership participants; thus, fulfilling their second year commitment to the program.

Now Accepting Applications

The chamber is currently accepting applications for the 2019-20 Project Leadership class. Space is limited. Applicants may be employer-sponsored or self-sponsored. The cost for the program for Roseburg Area Chamber members is $700; the cost for non-member participants is $925. Roseburg Area Chamber members will be given priority and acceptance is on a first-come/first-approved basis. Only one candidate per company may be accepted.
