

What Businesses Can Stay Open

March 23, 2020

What businesses may stay open?

- Bars, brew pubs, cafes, restaurants and wine bars and other similar establishments—only for deliver or pick-up orders
- Bank drive—through for normal day to day transactions. Lobby's are generally locked but can be accessed under very special circumstances by appointment. Lending operations must continue but where possible be accomplished via "telecommuting" and online
- Business offices and nonprofits, though employees "shall facilitate" telecommuting "to the maximum extent possible"
- Childcare facilities with a limit of 10 children who are the same each day. Priority must be given to children of medical or emergency frontline responders
- Coffee shops
- Doctors' offices, health care facilities and emergency services
- Food courts
- Grocery stores
- Pharmacies
- Pet stores and veterinary offices
- Any business not listed below that can ensure, maintain and monitor as required, social distancing, may remain open

These businesses must close (If a business sector isn't listed below, it may remain open as long as customers and employees can maintain a minimum six-foot distance and businesses remaining open—except grocery, pharmacy and health and medical centers—must designate an employee to enforce the social distancing policy).
