- Please attach a business card with application. Payment must accompany application.
- Membership organizations are listed alphabetically and categorically on the website and in the InUmpqua, a business directory, community profile and visitor magazine. Website link is complimentary the first year of membership.
- Membership is based on number of employees/owners/agents (see chart on back). Two half-time employees/agents equal one full-time employee/agent.
- Members receive one category title; additional categories are $25 each per year.
- All memberships shall be continuous unless canceled (A) in writing by the member, (B) by the Chamber for non-payment of dues after 60 days or (C) for non-compliance with the Chamber policies or conduct unbecoming per Article II, Section 4 of the Chamber bylaws.
- Membership dues investment is non-refundable.
- Membership has voting privileges. Please indicate who your voting representative will be. If you would like another person listed as main contact for the company in publications, please indicate under Publication Contact.
- Membership not valid until approved by the Chamber board of directors at a regularly-scheduled meeting.
- 90% of membership dues are deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. The 10% used for government affairs and lobbying expenses is not deductible. Dues paid to the Chamber are not a charitable tax deduction for federal tax purposes.
- A Chamber Associate is for a single individual, typically retired, who is not affiliated with any business, organization or entity. Chamber Associates do not have voting rights, can not serve on the board of directors or take advantage of other business-member opportunities as set forth in the Chamber's policies and procedures.
- Payment is due in full upon receipt of annual billing the month prior to commencement of new membership year, and is considered past due if payment is not received within 30 days. Partial payments will not be accepted.
- Political campaign committees are not eligible for application to membership with the Chamber.
- A trade association or community organization membership covers only that association or organization and their employees, not the individual members of the association or organization.
