

Can't Seem to Get that *NSYNC Song Outta My Head

For those who don't always read the chamber's Business Perspectives newsletter (Wait, what? Read your newsletters! Please!) or, for anyone living under the proverbial rock, I retired in early February after 24 years as RACC's president and CEO. No, you haven't lost your collective minds thinking you're pretty certain you've been receiving emails from me on a weekly basis. I contracted back with the chamber to wrap the legislative session and keep chamber programs, activities and events on track. This temporary commitment is about to wrap, as well. It's been a wild ride (deets in the November/December newsletter online) and a privilege to advocate in defense of local business. I will forever want nothing but for the Douglas County business community to succeed and thrive! Cheers!
